Talking is Power: Encouraging Inclusive Conversations

New Public Opinion Polling Commissioned by Power To Decide for Its Annual Talking Is Power Campaign

This year's theme for #TalkingIsPower, Encouraging Inclusive Conversations, highlights the need to ensure that all young people, particularly those in vulnerable communities, can have the open, honest conversations they need to keep themselves safe and healthy.

Most adults say they have someone they can talk to about sex and relationships;
now they can be that someone for the young people in their lives.
