Teen Pregnancy Prevention (TPP) Program — Tier 2
FY 2015 – FY 2019
The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy - Washington, DC
Project name: Innovation 2.0: Using Technology to Support and Enhance Adolescent Health
$1,499,988
The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy (now Power to Decide) uses Design Thinking as a strategy to unlock innovation and develop solutions to complex challenges. In order to accomplish this goal, Power to Decide implemented Innovation Next, a program that engages two cohorts of approximately 10 innovation teams who are using Design Thinking to address complex problems like reducing rates of teen pregnancy. Design Thinking, done right, guarantees that you will find solutions to the problems you seek to solve through insights that come directly from the target audience. You can’t move forward without a deep empathy for your audience gained through interviews and observation.

TITLE X FAMILY PLANNING SERVICES IN WASHINGTON, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

- Title X–supported centers provided contraceptive care to 41,713 women in DC in 2018.5
- Services at Title X-supported clinics helped women avoid 7,900 unintended pregnancies, which would have resulted in 3,800 births and 2,800 abortions.
- By preventing sexually transmitted diseases, cervical cancer, and unplanned pregnancies, Title X-supported centers in the District of Columbia saved $21.4 million in public funds in a single year.
- From FY 2010 to FY 2017, the amount of federal funding DC received for Title X increased by $593,000 resulting in 31,289 more (134%) patients served.
- In 2017, prior to the new Title X rule, 35 clinics in the District of Columbia received support from Title X. They included Unity Health Care clinics (26) and federally qualified health centers (9).

5 “Title X-supported centers” are supported by a mix of funding sources (in addition to Title X funding) including Medicaid, funding from state and local governments, private grants and fundraising, reimbursement from commercial insurance, patient fees, and federal grants.

About Power to Decide: Power to Decide, the campaign to prevent unplanned pregnancy, works to ensure that every young person has the power to decide if, when, and under what circumstances to get pregnant and have a child—increasing their opportunity to pursue the future they want.
