TITLE X FAMILY PLANNING SERVICES IN CONNECTICUT^{iv}

- Title X–supported centers provided contraceptive care to 42,865 women in Connecticut in 2018.⁵
- Services at Title X-supported clinics helped women avoid 8,600 unintended pregnancies, which would have resulted in 4,200 births and 3,100 abortions.
- By preventing sexually transmitted diseases, cervical cancer, and unplanned pregnancies, Title X-supported centers in Connecticut saved $81 million in public funds in a single year.
- From FY 2010 to FY 2017, the amount of federal funding Connecticut received for Title X decreased by $102,167 resulting in 1,709 fewer (4%) patients served.
- In 2017, prior to the new Title X rule, 26 clinics in Connecticut received support from Title X. They included Planned Parenthood clinics (12), school-based health centers (12), and federally qualified health centers (2).
- In August 2019, the new Title X rule went into effect, forcing one of Connecticut’s Title X grantees to exit the program. As a result, the state has lost 88% of its Title X funds.

⁵ “Title X-supported centers” are supported by a mix of funding sources (in addition to Title X funding) including Medicaid, funding from state and local governments, private grants and fundraising, reimbursement from commercial insurance, patient fees, and federal grants.
