

the campaign to prevent unplanned pregnancy

Senior Manager, Distance Learning

About Power to Decide

Power to Decide, the campaign to prevent unplanned pregnancy, believes that all young people should have the opportunity to pursue the future they want, realize their full possibility, and follow their intentions. These beliefs guide our work to ensure that all young people have the power to decide if, when, and under what circumstances to get pregnant and have a child. We provide objective, evidence-based information about sexual health and contraceptive options, and we work to guarantee equitable access to and information about the full range of contraceptive methods. We are a national, non-partisan organization that is committed to common ground, common sense solutions and catalyzing innovation in the public and private sectors.

Position

Power to Decide is seeking a Senior Manager, Distance Learning position who will have the opportunity to develop a new digital learning hub focused on building the capacity of social service and health providers to support their clients' reproductive well-being needs, with a specific emphasis on quality contraceptive counseling and care, preconception health, and inter-conception health. In partnership with our subject matter experts and content developers, the incumbent will have the opportunity to design, develop, and moderate a new digital learning hub to support the multi-faceted needs of our provider and health extender communities that use Power to Decide resources, such as One Key Question® and Bedsider. The Senior Manager will design a one-stop, interactive digital hub, develop and deliver distance learning trainings, and create, curate, and post materials to support providers and health extenders. This position offers an exciting opportunity to make a meaningful difference in people's lives by supporting sexual and reproductive health.

The Senior Manager, Distance Learning will report to the Chief Programs Officer.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Identifying a learning management platform and designing a multi-faceted interface to meet Power to Decide’s strategic goals.
- Designing the instructional strategies and syllabi for e-learning opportunities for the provider community.
- Co-creating content for e-learning opportunities in partnership with Power to Decide subject matter experts and content creators.
- Delivering and evaluating e-learning trainings for providers to support them in delivering quality reproductive health care, particularly around providing patient-centered reproductive health care.
- Facilitating and moderating ongoing provider community engagement, specifically around best practices and implementation support.
- Keeping up to date on the latest preconception and contraception care best practices.
- Implementing a comprehensive measurement and evaluation process that monitors progress, informs continuous improvement, and measures outcomes.
- Uses industry best practices to maintain ongoing engagement among members of the provider community.

Qualifications

We are looking for someone who will think big, embrace innovation, and seek new ways of addressing issues. The successful candidate will be responsible, conscientious, adaptive, and resourceful. They will value diversity of thought, backgrounds, and perspectives; be collaborative and proactive; and work effectively as part of an integrated cross-functional team. They will be able to comfortably embrace a non-ideological “big tent” approach to sexual health and unplanned pregnancy prevention, and be passionate about health equity and creating a culture in which all young people can thrive.

The successful candidate will have/be:

- Master’s degree in a relevant discipline required
- 5-7 years of professional experience in distance learning
- At least 4-5 years of relevant work experience in health care
- Experience developing and delivering remote training, using both live and self-paced e-learning module methods
- Solid understanding of, and ability to apply, research and best practices in designing for learning (the science of how people learn) and engagement (how to capture and keep participants engaged) in a digital space
- Excellent communication skills, including public speaking and strong writing and editing abilities
- Experience with online community management is a plus

The Senior Manager, Distance Learning is an exempt position. Salary is commensurate with experience and Power to Decide has an excellent benefits package including health, dental and vision insurance, 403b, flexible spending accounts, flexible work schedules, and generous leave. Power to Decide is committed to maintaining a diverse staff and an inclusive, multicultural environment. We are proud to provide equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants without regard to actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, parenting status (including pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions), age, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, veteran status, uniformed service member status, disability or any other characteristic protected by law.

Please send a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to:
recruitment@powertodecide.org